 - no display materials that might be helpful to candidates are visible
 - a reliable clock of readable size is visible to each candidate
 - the Warning to Candidates is displayed outside the examination room
 - the No Mobile Phone Notice is displayed in a public place outside the examination room
 - the seating arrangements prevent candidates, intentionally or otherwise, from overseeing the work of others
2. To carry out spot checks to ensure that name tickets on desk match seating plan for any examination session that you participate in.
3. To carry out checks that the correct stationery and equipment is in the examination room.
4. To take all reasonable steps to ensure that:
 - the official examination stationery is issued to candidates and that no other stationery, including paper for rough work, is provided
 - candidates take into the examination room only those articles, instruments or materials which are expressly permitted
 - candidates have all the necessary material to enable them to complete the examination
5. To open the packet of examination papers and issue the papers to Candidates.
6. To give clear instructions to candidates about the conduct of the examination to ensure that they fully understand what they are required to do.
7. To supervise the candidates throughout the whole time the examination is in progress, and give complete attention at all times to this duty.

- 8 To immediately report any concerns with either the paper or student/s to the Examinations Officer.
- 9 To know the actions to be taken in the event of an emergency such as a fire alarm or bomb alert.
- 10 At the end of the examination, to collect all scripts and ensure that candidates have used their correct Centre and candidate numbers.
- 11 After collation, to ensure the scripts are handed to the person responsible for despatching the scripts to Examiners.
- 12 To collect all unused stationery in the examination room and return it to the Examinations Officer.
- 13 To ensure that the room is left in a tidy condition

This job description sets out the duties of the post at the time it was drawn up. The post holder may be required from time to time to undertake other duties within the school as may be reasonably expected, without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. This is a common occurrence and would not justify a reconsideration of the grading of the post.
